

23rd Anniversary

Fall River Rendezvous

September 25-28, 2025

Fall River State Park – Fredonia Bay

Fall River State Park is seeking groups and individuals interested in presenting living history encampments, crafts, trades, appropriate to the 1800-1840 time period.

- Mountain Men & American Indian Encampments
 - Black Powder Shoot
 - Traders & Artisans Welcome
 - Primitive dress requested
- Registration Required, NO traders fee
- Firewood & water provided; entrance and camping for those in period clothing.
 - Covered dish Saturday night, will provide the meat. May set-up early.
- Open to the public Saturday only.

For more information please contact:

Booshway, Kimberly Jones
Fall River State Park
144 Highway 105
Toronto, KS 66777
620-637-2213
Kimberly.jones@ks.gov

